Property Description

Sitting high on the fifth level, this apartment brings a relaxed, tropical vibe to modern living in Costa Rica. This bright and breezy one level residence offers three bedrooms and three-and-a-half bathrooms, all designed to soak up the natural light and green views that surround the building. Big glass doors open up the living and dining spaces to the outdoors, blurring the line between home and nature. The open layout feels airy and fresh—perfect for the Costa Rican lifestyle, where comfort and connection to the environment come first. Each bedroom is its own cozy retreat, complete with a private bathroom and a walk-in closet ideal for keeping things organized and stylish. The full laundry area makes day-to-day living easy, while the modern kitchen, fitted with high-quality finishes, invites cooking, gathering, and sharing meals with family or friends. Throughout the apartment, natural textures and light tones create a warm, welcoming feel that pairs beautifully with the tropical surroundings.
