Property Description

Casa Moro is reminiscent of a Moroccan, yet tropical, wonderland. The details incorporated into this lovely home are abundant and many imported. With almost 360 degree views, one will never get "bored" staring off to the jungle, or the blue pacific or the mountains or the cliffs, or.....Built in 2005 this 5 bedroom, 2 1/2 bath boasts so many wonderful features that you will simply have to see it to appreciate all the facets. A wonderful family home with four beds downstairs and a loft perfect for the artist cove, musician, or one that need seclusion. As you enter the home via its courtyard entrance you are immediately welcomed by all the architectural delights. Light fixtures and tile floors imported from Morocco immediately envelope your senses. You enter the home directly via the living room that boasts ample space for all your entertaining needs. A large kitchen perfect for the chef sits off to the right side, both staring directly at the Pacific sunset.
