Property Description

This tiny homes retreat in Los Angeles de Rivas offers a thoughtful collection of three livable structures set within a landscaped property framed by mountain views. Two of the units are studio-style spaces designed for two guests, while the third is a two-level studio with sleeping space for three. A detached shared laundry room sits nearby, creating a practical and organized layout for hosting. The grounds are well maintained, with a private pond and gardens tucked toward the back of the property. From many points, there are views toward Costa Rica's highest peaks and La Amistad International Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and the country's largest conservation area. The setting feels quiet and green, with mature plantings shaping intimate outdoor spaces. Access is straightforward along a well-kept gravel road, and the property is gated for privacy. Its location places it within minutes of many local attractions, including Finca Brinca pottery studio, the Butterfly Dome, Cloudbridge Nature Reserve, and a range of cafés, trailheads, and community spots.
