Property Description

Located in the heart of Canaan de Rivas, this turn-key three-bedroom, one-bathroom home offers an easy blend of comfort, simplicity and connection to the landscape. Set on a 1,500 m² (16,145 ft²) parcel, the property sits within walking distance to Batsú Restaurante and the Butterfly Dome, yet feels quietly removed, with open skies and uninterrupted views toward the highest peaks of the Talamanca range. The home is thoughtfully laid out, with an inviting flow between the indoor living spaces and the covered outdoor patio. From here, the mountains feel close enough to study. Morning light moves slowly across the ridgelines, and in the late afternoon the colors deepen as the valley cools. This vantage point is one of the property's defining qualities, giving the house a sense of calm presence throughout the day. Inside, the spaces are practical and comfortable, designed for full-time living as well as an easy transition to a rental or Airbnb model.
