Property Description

Have you dreamed of owning a cash-flowing multi-unit vacation rental business by the beach in Costa Rica? Maybe you wanted to buy land and build something special, but don't want the risk, delays, and opportunity cost of a long construction timeline. Here is your opportunity: Pierre & Colors Tamarindo is a recently constructed, architecturally intentional boutique hotel, designed for guests who appreciate art, craftsmanship, and serenity. Every room features handcrafted furniture, built-ins, lighting, and décor made in Costa Rica, color-matched with purpose and designed to create emotion and comfort. Property Overview: This adults-only residence offers nine beautifully curated guest units, positioned on a key corner within walking distance to Tamarindo Beach. The property borders a large protected finca, giving terraces and second-floor balconies peaceful jungle views while still keeping you close to the heart of town.
