Property Description

Enveloped by pristine rivers on three sides and alive with the sights and sounds of Costa Rica's diverse wildlife, Finca Isla offers an unmatched blend of natural beauty, income potential, and long-term sustainability. A Natural Sanctuary Nestled in the lush landscapes of Aguas Zarcas, this island-like property is a haven for toucans, parrots, monkeys, anteaters, wild cats, and countless other native species. Mature fruit trees and tropical hardwoods dot the landscape, while crystal-clear streams provide an unlimited year-round water source, a true ecological treasure. Income Potential & Development Opportunities Finca Isla is more than just a retreat; it is a thriving investment opportunity with multiple revenue streams already in place: • Hospitality – Six fully furnished cabins and two rental houses have operated as top-rated Airbnb accommodations, offering immediate income potential in the ecotourism market.
