Property Description

Welcome to the heart of natural beauty! This extraordinary property spans 1.3 hectares and offers a truly magical panoramic view in every direction. With a majestic national park as a backdrop, this land presents itself as the ideal canvas for your dreams. The buildable finca, featuring a generous construction platform of at least 2500m², is not just a place to build but a canvas where life stories are crafted. A share of the forest imparts a unique character to this property, nestled within an exclusive community that instills an unparalleled sense of security. Beyond the spectacular views, prepared terraces below the construction platform await – an ideal space for fruit trees and crops that will flourish in this natural setting. The community itself is crisscrossed with specially designed hiking trails gently leading you to the nearby river, inviting unforgettable experiences in nature.
