Property Description

Designed and curated by renowned architect Eugenia Méndez, this residence is more than a home—it is a timeless piece of art. Every detail was thoughtfully conceived to harmonize with the environment, ensuring natural airflow, abundant light, and a sense of serenity that only a tropical setting can provide. Nestled seamlessly into the lush forest canopy, the home offers a rare connection with nature. From your terrace, while enjoying your morning coffee or evening glass of wine, you can watch toucans, scarlet macaws, and playful monkeys in your own backyard. Located in the exclusive gated community of Las Olas in Dominicalito, this majestic estate boasts uninterrupted ocean views from Dominicalito to Manuel Antonio, blending elegance and comfort with a truly privileged location. Practical as well as beautiful, this property benefits from low maintenance and holding costs, with professional property management available on site—ensuring peace of mind whether you choose it as your primary residence, vacation home, or investment property.
