Property Description

This is an amazing property with nearly 2 acres of fruit trees, a rolling green lawn, and cypress trees, all tucked in by a river. The mountains of Heredia are known for their cool climate and gorgeous views. Surrounded by nature, you will see lots of wildlife here, including deer, tapirs, and coati mundis. You will also see toucans and lots of other tropical birds. With nearly 2 acres, you will consider this your own forest preserve. The house features a cozy yet spacious open design. There is a gas fireplace to give you great ambiance, you may need the fireplace place at certain times of the year! The kitchen is the center of the home and is French-inspired. With lots of counter space, plenty of storage, and pretty views you will enjoy everyday meals or entertaining your friends. Lots of windows, skylights, and high ceilings make this home very bright. Just off of the kitchen is the spacious laundry room.
