Property Description

This beautiful home and property are located just 15 minutes away from Grecia downtown, in San Isidro. It's a highly sought-after area for both Costa Rican families and expats. The property is situated on a secondary street with easy access, making it a very peaceful location. One of the main highlights of the property is that it offers a delightful sense of peace, happiness, and gratitude, thanks to its multiple large windows that provide beautiful views and ample natural light. The home offers excellent construction with very thoughtful maintenance and upkeep. On the first floor, we find a garage for 2 cars; TV room, a full bathroom and a half bathroom for guests; dining room, living room, terrace, a beautiful kitchen with a large number of drawers made of fine wood; and another very spacious room with large windows to enjoy friends and family; in addition, a large laundry room.
