Property Description

CODE: 23TG17 I am really excited to show you this one hectare lot that is for sale. It is well located in Limonal, Coyolar, Orotina. About Orotina: Orotina is a place that's great for growing things because the soil is so good. They grow all kinds of fruits like pineapple and melon and watermelon and avocado and many more. Orotina is actually pretty famous for all the fruits it grows. They even have a big fruit festival every year. Orotina also grows things like coffee and sugar cane and grains. A lot of the land is used for animals like cows. People also like to visit Orotina because it's easy to get to from the city and the airport. It is forty minutes from San Jose. This lot is a chance to invest or start a farm or build something you have always wanted. It is in a spot and the land is very good.
