Property Description

The peacefulness you will find at this property is unrivaled! Fall in love with the landscaping, the view from the porch of Lake Arenal framed by the tropical rainforest, the wildlife... Other exceptional features of this gorgeous property right at the shores of the lake are the immaculate shape that the house is in, the neighbourhood, and the convenient location at 5 minutes from Nuevo Arenal. This lovely Spanish colonial style home is solidly built out of concrete block and has lots of beautiful wood finishings. The home has two bedrooms, each with their own full bathroom and there is another guest bathroom. Both bedrooms have built-in hardwood closets. The same wood is extensively used all throughout the house. The open kitchen has a good area for preparing meals and the dining room next to it is a charming space with windows wrapped around for viewing the lush green outdoors. The real joy of this house though is lounging on the front porch and breathing the clean, fresh air from the surrounding trees opening up to view Lake Arenal.
