Property Description

Perched above the tranquil waves of Rincón de San Josesito, this remarkable ocean view property in Drake Bay offers a rare combination of natural beauty, privacy, and accessibility. Located just 10 minutes from the vibrant heart of Drake Bay, this site captures the essence of Costa Rica's southern Pacific coast—where lush jungle meets turquoise waters and wildlife thrives in abundance. This 14-hectare property (10 hectares titled + 4 hectares of concessioned beachfront) overlooks pristine beaches with sweeping ocean views from every corner. It's an extraordinary opportunity for a visionary eco-developer, luxury hotel project, or anyone seeking to create an exclusive private retreat in Costa Rica. A newly opened public road provides easy access, reserved for the property and a small group of local residents, ensuring both seclusion and convenience. The area has recently become more accessible than ever, thanks to improved roads and new bridges that eliminate the need for river crossings.
