Property Description

Step through the threshold of this architectural marvel, and the first element to captivate your senses will undoubtedly be the extraordinary view. Perched on a verdant coastal mountain ridgeline, this home boasts a coveted location offering unparalleled, uninterrupted vistas of the Pacific Ocean and the lush rainforest below. Expansive, floor-to-ceiling glass walls ensure that the awe-inspiring landscape is a constant companion throughout the 7,950 square feet of living space, which encompasses five bedrooms and 5.5 bathrooms. Mornings at Casa de Luz begin with the first light of day spilling over the ocean, illuminating the horizon as the surrounding rainforest stirs to life. From the private Master Suite, watch as the ocean shimmers and dances with the changing light. Whether from the serene loft of the suite, the glass-walled shower, or the freestanding soaking tub, you are treated to sweeping, panoramic views of Costa Ballena and the iconic Whale's Tail.
