Property Description

Very close to Route 27 and Carara National Park, this house is located in San Juan de Mata, a town in the canton of Turubares, in the province of San José, Costa Rica. This area is known for its natural surroundings and tranquil atmosphere. It has land use for the construction or development of a hotel or cottages for lodging and tourism purposes. The land is divided into six completed land registers. The region is characterized by lush vegetation, with a mix of forests, mountains, and agricultural areas. It is common to find timber trees, fruit trees, and land suitable for agriculture and livestock. This charming estate offers a perfect combination of comfort and nature, with a unique view of Turubares Mountain, where colorful birds and butterflies abound. The property already has a fully furnished house, designed for comfort and functionality, with 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms, ideal for a family or for those seeking a quiet retreat.
