Property Description

This newly completed contemporary residence offers a composed balance of modern design, privacy, and proximity to the coast. Positioned just five minutes from the beach and local amenities, the estate enjoys a peaceful natural setting while remaining effortlessly connected. The home is thoughtfully sited on 1.59 acres, capturing expansive Pacific Ocean and mountain views that define the surrounding landscape. Clean architectural lines, refined materials, and an emphasis on natural light establish a calm, sophisticated atmosphere throughout the residence. The interior layout includes four bedrooms, two of which are currently configured as private offices, along with three bathrooms. One of the bedrooms is designed as a self-contained mini apartment, featuring both a private exterior entrance and internal access through the main house, offering added flexibility for guests, staff, or rental potential.
