Property Description

Nestled in the lush mountains of Northern Costa Rica, this extraordinary farm combines agricultural production, ornamental plant exports, environmental conservation, and exceptional eco-tourism and sustainable development potential. Located approximately 160 km from San José, the property enjoys year-round access via Ciudad Quesada, Florencia, Muelle, Terrón Colorado, and Santa Rosa de Pocosal, followed by 12 km toward Rancho Quemado. For more than 35 years, the farm has been developed with a strong focus on tropical agriculture, biodiversity, and soil improvement. The property currently operates an ornamental plant business serving both export and local markets, including Dieffenbachia Tropic Snow exported to California, along with crotons, aralias, Monstera Thai Constellation, aglaonemas, philodendrons, cordylines, heliconias, zingiberaceae varieties, and more than 10 species of palms.
