Property Description

Located in the Plaza Central building, designed by Robert Orr and awarded the Palladio Prize in 2021, in the extraordinary town of Las Catalinas, this 1 bedroom, 1 and a half bathroom apartment offers unparalleled views of the Pacific Ocean and evening sunsets. Renovated with superior lighting, new paint throughout, a new full size washer and dryer, new air conditioning units, and with updated furnishings for the finishing touches, this property is a successful vacation rental option, just 1 minute away walking distance from the beach and with capacity for two adults and one or two children comfortably. With a central location that allows access to everything Las Catalinas has to offer, including The Mercado with its restaurants and the new Celeste on the beach, this vacation home offers a great quality of life. With over 40km of cycling and hiking trails, and nearby eco-adventures, this growing town is a complete living and vacation experience.
