Property Description

Discover an exceptional investment property nestled in the hills of Ciudad Colon, in the heart of Costa Rica's Central Valley. This exclusive private residential complex combines contemporary design, privacy, spacious living areas, and breathtaking panoramic views of the northern mountain range and Poas Volcano, offering an outstanding opportunity for both investors and multifamily residential use. The property consists of four strategically distributed apartments within a secure, nature-surrounded environment: two 2-bedroom units and two 1-bedroom units. The 2-bedroom apartments feature spacious interiors, fully equipped kitchens, living and dining areas, laundry facilities, high-speed internet, quality finishes, and privileged views. The 1-bedroom units offer comfort, functionality, and privacy, making them ideal for long-term or vacation rentals. Each apartment has been designed to maximize comfort, featuring abundant natural light, cross ventilation, and stunning mountain and city views.
