Property Description

Nestled in the highly desirable community of Platanillo on Cacao Ridge, this 1.9-acre property offers the perfect blend of cool mountain living and easy coastal convenience. At a comfortable elevation of 1,000 feet, you will enjoy refreshing, constant breezes that keep the property cool year-round, eliminating the need for constant air conditioning. The Ultimate Canvas: Multiple Building Sites Unlike many steep mountain lots, this property boasts a generous, usable layout with multiple building sites and a large overall development footprint. Whether you want to build a main luxury home with independent guest villas, a family compound, or a multi-unit rental income property, the topography is exceptionally accommodating. Property Highlights & Infrastructure Turnkey Infrastructure: Fully equipped and ready to build with legal water, electricity, and high-speed fiber optic internet available.
