Property Description

This 1,092 m² lot for sale in Senderos del Río, Grecia, is located in San Roque de Grecia, Alajuela, within a private gated residential community surrounded by nature, mountains, mature trees, green areas, and a peaceful family-friendly environment. This property is an excellent opportunity to build a custom home in one of Grecia's attractive residential areas. It combines privacy, security, fresh climate, natural surroundings, and convenient access to nearby services, making it ideal for buyers looking for a building lot in Grecia, Costa Rica, inside a well-planned gated community. San Roque is one of the most desirable residential sectors of Grecia due to its proximity to town, pleasant climate, mountain surroundings, and quiet residential atmosphere. The district is located at approximately 1,077 meters above sea level, which helps provide a fresh and comfortable climate throughout much of the year.
