Property Description

Experience the pinnacle of vertical luxury on the seventh and eighth floors of Latitud Diez, a discreet 22-unit condominium building surrounded by gardens with controlled access. Located just steps from restaurants, shops, parks, and essential services in San Rafael, Escazú, this two-story penthouse places you in one of San José's most desirable neighborhoods. This type of property is a prime example of the exclusive Homes for sale in Costa Rica, offering unmatched design, location, and investment potential. Spanning approximately 280 square meters across two levels, this extraordinary residence is defined by dramatic cathedral ceilings that create an unparalleled sense of volume and light. The expansive living room flows seamlessly into the modern kitchen, while the interior terrace a signature architectural feature fills the home with natural illumination and offers a tranquil indoor garden space unique to this building.
