Property Description

Just 7 minutes from the center of Ojochal, this beautiful riverside retreat offers a unique opportunity to live and host in the heart of nature. The property is surrounded by jungle, gardens, and a peaceful river, creating a private and relaxing setting, perfect for retreats, rentals, or a personal getaway. There are six fully equipped and uniquely designed villas on the property. Each one includes its own kitchen, indoor living area, bathroom, air conditioning, and private patio. All the villas are different in size and layout, offering a mix of spaces ideal for singles, couples, families, or groups, sleeping between 2 and 7 guests depending on the villa. They are comfortably furnished and ready to host, with details that balance privacy and connection to the shared spaces. All the villas have direct and private access to the large saltwater pool, which also includes a shallow area for children.
