Property Description

Casa Mono is a one-of-a-kind jungle sanctuary set on 5,000m sq (1.23 acres) of private land in Marbella, one of Costa Rica's most authentic and sought-after surf communities. Completed in 2025, this architect-designed residence blends contemporary tropical design with Indian architectural influences to create a home that feels deeply connected to its natural surroundings. Surrounded by mature trees, tropical birds, and monkeys, the property offers exceptional privacy and tranquility while remaining just minutes from some of the area's best surf breaks and beaches. Perched on a hillside, the home enjoys distant ocean views, cooling breezes, and spectacular sunsets. The 167m sq; (1,798 sq ft) residence features a spacious open-concept layout with soaring ceilings, abundant natural light, and a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor living. Designed specifically for Costa Rica's climate, the home stays naturally cool through thoughtful airflow, shaded spaces, and architectural detailing.
