Property Description

Experience the perfect blend of natural beauty, privacy, and sustainable living on this extraordinary 40,951 m² (10.12acre) finca. Surrounded by breathtaking scenery, this unique property offers stunning views overlooking the river, together with spectacular panoramic vistas across the lush valley and majestic mountain ranges. The property's diverse topography is one of its most distinctive features, combining natural terraces with gently rolling and more dramatic slopes. This unique landscape creates exceptional character, enhances privacy, and offers multiple premium building sites with breathtaking views of the river, lush valley, and surrounding mountain ranges. One of the finca's most remarkable features is its beautiful elevated view of the river, which winds peacefully through the landscape below. From several areas of the property, you can enjoy breathtaking views of the water and the surrounding unspoiled nature.
