Property Description

Set within the lush landscapes of Bijagua, this 10.5-hectare property offers a rare opportunity to own a sizeable piece of Costa Rica's rainforest region only 2km (4min) away from Tenorio Volcano National Park and the renowned Río Celeste. The land features a year-round river, natural springs, mature forest, and abundant wildlife, creating an exceptional setting for those seeking privacy, nature, and long-term potential. Conveniently located just off the main road and near the well-known Carolina Lodge, the property combines easy access with a peaceful natural environment. Multiple areas throughout the land are well suited for building, whether envisioned as a private estate, eco-lodge, wellness retreat, conservation project, or small-scale sustainable development. Surrounded by one of Costa Rica's most visited ecotourism destinations, the property benefits from close proximity to hiking trails, waterfalls, wildlife viewing, and outdoor recreation associated with the Río Celeste and Tenorio region.
