Property Description

Located in a sought-after community just five minutes from the center of Atenas, this beautifully maintained turn-key home offers the ideal blend of convenience, comfort, and relaxed Costa Rican living. Designed for easy everyday enjoyment, the property features an inviting open-concept layout, private outdoor spaces, and practical extras that make it a standout option for buyers seeking a move-in-ready residence in one of the Central Valley's most desirable towns. Prime Atenas location: The home is close to town while still offering the peaceful feel of a residential community. Atenas is widely appreciated for its comfortable climate, relaxed lifestyle, and convenient access to services, making it especially attractive for full-time residents, retirees, and buyers seeking a tranquil Central Valley setting. Move-in-ready comfort: With air conditioning in the living area and master bedroom, quality furniture and appliances like refrigerator, gas-stove, dishwasher, washer and dryer, a reserve water tank, and practical storage, the home already includes many of the conveniences buyers look for when choosing a ready-to-enjoy property.
