Property Description

Nature, privacy, and an exceptional setting to develop your next project. Located just a few minutes from downtown Jericó de Desamparados, this extraordinary land of over 5,000 m² (1.23 acres) offers a unique blend of natural beauty, privacy, and great development potential. Surrounded by an environment where exclusive, high-end residences have been established, the property enjoys breathtaking mountain views, lush vegetation, and the tranquility that characterizes this privileged area. Its sloped topography provides the perfect opportunity to develop an architectural project that takes full advantage of the landscape, creating spaces with terraces, large windows, and natural viewpoints. Additionally, the land features a charming creek and a small cabin with remodeling potential—elements that add distinct character and value to the property.
