Property Description

Perched dramatically on an oceanfront bluff approximately 200 feet above the waters of Bahía Culebra, 525 Calle Noche de Luna offers an extraordinary combination of architectural elegance, breathtaking panoramic views, and the unparalleled lifestyle of Peninsula Papagayo. Designed by renowned architect Angelo Del Vecchio, this exceptional residence seamlessly blends contemporary luxury with the natural beauty of Costa Rica's most prestigious resort community. From the moment you enter, spectacular ocean views become the focal point of every space. The home's open-concept design creates an effortless flow between the spacious living room, dining area, and gourmet kitchen, all thoughtfully positioned to capture the beauty of the Pacific Ocean. Whether entertaining guests or enjoying quiet moments with family, every living area embraces the surrounding landscape. The well-appointed kitchen offers generous workspace and is perfectly suited for both everyday living and private chef experiences.
