Property Description

Discover a rare opportunity to own spacious residential land just minutes from Tamarindo, one of Costa Rica's most vibrant and sought-after beach communities. Located in Santa Rosa, within the Tamarindo district, these generous 5,000 m² (1.23-acre) lots offer the perfect combination of privacy, convenience, and long-term investment potential. Situated within a secure gated community with coded access, the development provides a peaceful countryside setting while maintaining close proximity to Tamarindo's restaurants, shops, surf beaches, and services. The community is designed for flexibility and value, offering no HOA fees, allowing owners greater freedom when designing and building their home. Families and investors alike will appreciate the exceptional location only two minutes from Educarte and Journey Schools, two of the area's most respected private institutions. Whether you're planning a primary residence, vacation retreat, or long-term investment property, these lots offer the space and infrastructure needed to bring your vision to life in the Tamarindo region.
