Property Description

Nestled between Montezuma and Mal País/Santa Teresa, Kalapiti Estate is a 9.6-acre (3.9-hectare) private retreat transformed from a horse ranch into a lush botanical sanctuary. The property features three distinct dwelling spaces designed for luxury, comfort, and versatility. The centerpiece of the estate is a grand three-story luxury villa, featuring two large, spacious suites that sleep up to 8 guests. This stunning villa offers a private pool, sauna, chef's kitchen, smoker, pizza/bread oven, and jacuzzi—perfect for entertaining or relaxation. Also on the property is a spacious two-story, four-bedroom home with 1.5 bathrooms, as well as a studio casita with its own yard, bathroom, and kitchenette for added privacy. Additionally, a separate laundry house could easily be converted into a fourth dwelling. Designed with elegant curves that harmonize with the landscape, the main villa features expansive living areas, private suites, and high-end finishes.
