Property Description

This modern finished home is under construction and features a functional layout. Upon entering, you will find an open-concept kitchen, equipped with modern appliances and a central island that acts as the heart of the space. The island not only serves for cooking, but also as an ideal social spot for sharing. Next to the kitchen is the living room, which features a large sliding glass door that provides abundant natural light and connects to the outdoor terrace. The terrace offers a perfect space for relaxing, with a modern heated pool and fire pit creating a cozy atmosphere for enjoying outdoor gatherings. The home includes two spacious and bright bedrooms, with two modern bathrooms. The master bedroom stands out for its direct access to the terrace through a glass door, allowing for seamless integration between the interior and exterior. In addition, the bedroom features a private bathroom with fine finishes.
