Property Description

Tambor Tropical Beach Resort presents a rare opportunity to acquire an established beachfront resort and expansive development property in one of Costa Rica's most captivating coastal destinations. Set along the calm, turquoise waters of Tambor Bay on approximately 5.9 acres of titled beachfront land, this exceptional property combines an operating hospitality business with substantial room for future expansion. The existing resort offers an intimate tropical experience with 12 villa suites and two apartments, complemented by a spacious lobby and art gallery, reading library, commercial kitchen, and beachfront restaurant and bar. Surrounded by lush tropical gardens, the property features a generous outdoor swimming pool, jacuzzi, and spa, creating an inviting environment where guests can relax just steps from the beach. The resort's elevated position along the bay also provides sweeping views of the surrounding mountains and coastline.
