Property Description

Set in the hills above Playa Hermosa, this turnkey three-story building offers a unique investment opportunity less than 10 minutes from the beach. The property features four independent one-bedroom units, each with its own private balcony and ocean and valley views. Built with solid concrete, the building offers a durable and low-maintenance structure, while a shared pool and common area provide an attractive amenity for residents and guests. The top floor is a penthouse-style unit, offering expansive ocean and valley views along with spectacular sunsets. With its elevated position and spacious outlook, it provides a standout living experience and strong appeal for both personal use and vacation rentals. With its convenient proximity to Playa Hermosa, panoramic views from every unit, multiple independent residences, and turnkey condition, this property is ideal for an investor looking for an income-producing opportunity in one of Costa Rica's sought-after coastal areas.
