Property Description

Perched high at the very top of the hill in the exclusive enclave of El Castillo, located directly within Arenal Volcano National Park, El Castillo en Las Nubes (The Castle in the Clouds) brings an unexpected European country-house elegance to the heart of the Costa Rican rainforest. Set on a 462 m² (0.11-acre) lot, the 1,399 sq. ft. residence features an additional 322 sq. ft. covered patio, totaling 1,721 sq. ft. of living and covered outdoor area. The property is an intimate sanctuary wrapped in lush, mature tropical gardens, natural stone terraces, and a private swimming pool framing front-row views of the iconic volcano. Sitting quietly above a picturesque country road, this elevated storybook residence is designed for natural immersion. Meandering pathways lead through the jungle frontage, while a charming covered gazebo is positioned where the rainforest meets panoramic views of Lake Arenal.
