Property Description

This is a well-established and reputable business very conveniently located in the very popular valley of Ojochal in the Southern Pacific zone of Costa Rica. The hotel offers cozy and simple accommodations at affordable rates to appeal to a diverse clientele. The property features 6 buildings and a pool located on over 2 acres of land with a year round creek passing through the property. It is beautifully landscaped with palms, fruit trees and other tropical landscaping to highlight the natural beauty of this area. And your guest will enjoy the opportunity to relax in a hammock along the creek or on their veranda while listening to the surrounding nature, yet they are just minutes from the finest restaurants in the entire Southern zone. One of the highlights of the property are the 3 very charming cabins built by well recognized Eco Maderas. These are beautiful and very low maintenance.
