Property Description

This home, a fusion of Southwestern and Mediterranean architecture with beautifully flowering landscaping surrounding it and a pool to match the Pacific Ocean, gives the impression of a totally private tropical resort. The first highlight as you approach is a broad covered porch where you are protected from any weather while you watch the natural world at play and the ocean changing colors to reflect the skies. It's a tranquil, beautiful setting for quiet romantic drinks or dinners with guests. Inside, the graceful arches and beautifully timbered ceilings welcome you to the kitchen/dining/living area that is surrounded by windows letting in the breezes and light. Designed to be spacious and welcoming, the kitchen has all quality appliances and space for food preparation. Dining can be either inside or out depending on your mood and the weather. There is plenty of room for guests to spread out in the living room.
