Property Description

This home is really something special and it is a fantastic price! It is located in the Ojochal area and is just minutes from many beautiful beaches and fantastic restaurants but still has a very private, living in the jungle feel. This home was built in 2015 and has never been occupied. It has an open concept living room and kitchen with a huge wall of floor to ceiling windows that allow you to enjoy the beauty of the outdoors every moment of the day. The living room and kitchen are separated from each bedroom and bathroom by the expansive open deck area where you can hear the sounds of the nearby babbling creek and wildlife in the jungle. You will love relaxing in the plunge pool and enjoying the tropical sounds and views. This home is at such a fantastic price in a very desirable neighborhood.
