Property Description

Have you ever dreamed of having a small beach house on a tropical beach in Costa Rica? This cozy "Casita" is your best option to start a carefree life in the lovely town of Uvita. The location of this home is one of the best for all of those that want to get up in the morning and go surfing in less than 10 minutes or enjoying a morning walk to the Whales Tail beach. After your new morning routine of activities, you have the rest of your day to relax in a hammock with a good book, or enjoy the area's shops and services. Visit the local organic market, have lunch with your Friends and Family at your favorites restaurants and stroll along the river banks, and more. The two-bedroom home is well built with prefab-concrete panels keeping the inside cool on warm days. With tile floors, metal roof, hardwood furniture, this home is complete. The master bedroom has a queen-size bed, custom closet, and brand new A/C unit.
