Property Description

Some artist took a paintbrush and drafted this canvas of a property across the mountainside of Phase 9, Ventana del Pacífico, Ojochal development. One hundred and eighty degrees of soothing mountain and sun setting ocean views. Located in the community of Ojochal, offering a multicultural, peaceful residential environment, within close access to the world-famous beaches of Playa Tortuga and Playa Ventanas. Proximity to Hospitals, famous hotels, and restaurants, within the heart of a Costa Rican community, resulting in the welcoming residential environment of Ojochal. The land is suited to hold three independent building sites, two of which could enjoy the great views without obstructing one another, and a lower site which offers large spaces for the common use of the houses, such as a tennis court pool house or a couple of guesthouses which would also enjoy the ocean views. Phase 9 offers public road, property maintenance, community water, and other services at a very fair price, which makes the phases a very affordable yet exclusive place to live.
