Property Description

Finca La Arboleda is located just 7 km from Playa Samara in a tranquil and private spot surrounded by the Costa Rican mountains and jungle. Surrounded by the adjacent mountains of the community of the Terciopelo community, the property is accessed by a neighborhood street that connects with the finca. This 15-acre (6 hectare) property has several natural terraces making it ideal for a residential development opportunity, a farm for an ecological project and or other commercial activities. In its highest part, you can see the sea adjacent to the bay of Samara. The land is naturally terraced all the way down to the river adjacent to the property, Rio Buena Vista. Additionally, the property is crossed by a stream and has a small, natural aquifer. With electricity and water adjacent to the property, this land has potential to be segregated for re-sale. Finca La Arboleda is an excellent opportunity that represents the future in investing in the real estate market in the area, so don't miss it.
