Property Description

Vista Castillo is an amazing waterfront residence equipped with its own dock located in the heart of Golfito overlooking the bay. Newly renovated, it boasts 13 bedrooms, consisting of one handicap room, two rooms with a queen and a twin bunk bed, one room with two queens, and seven rooms each with a queen for guests. The grand residence also has quarters for staff and an owner's quarter as well. The brand new restaurant has a wood fire oven for the best pizza around alongside the new sparkling pool overlooking the bay. As you enter the residence the lobby is inviting you to meet guests and show them to the multiple sitting areas one can enjoy while watching the dolphins and whales right in front of you. The large kitchen at the front of the property is a fantastic area for your guests to enjoy their breakfast as they contemplate the day's activities. No need to go far to hop on a boat, equipped with its own dock the tours start immediately right from the hotel! Golfito is Costa Rica's most southern port town; is located across from the Osa Peninsula on the Golfo Dulce.
