Property Description

This property, you'll be living far enough from town to be totally immersed in the allure of such a majestic, natural venue, but also located within a few minutes drive to the local beaches, shopping, bars, and restaurants. The home is spacious, with a large infinity swimming pool and all-encompassing ocean views. Major renovations on the house wrapped up in 2020 so everything from the furniture to the cutlery feels clean and new. The house features three bedrooms. Layout-wise, the infinity pool bumps right up to the kitchen and dining area, so everyone gets to feel like they're a part of the action, regardless if you're making breakfast or swimming laps. There are shallow sections inside the pool for water-based lounging, as well as a layout for chairs on the pool side deck. The large kitchen is a culinary delight, open-air with a view of everything ideal for entertaining large groups or intimate settings while watching the sunset.
