Property Description

Newly renovated and expanded Casa Valle Verde is a unique home nestled on over 5 acres in the beautiful Diamante valley of Tinamastes. Private and secluded feel of being in your own world; yet only 3-4 minutes off the paved road to San Isidro. About 25-30 minutes to Dominical and 25 minutes to San Isidro make for an ideal location with much cooler temperatures day and night than down by the coast. The main house and immaculately appointed with the living room back wall completely opening to let the outdoors in for that tropical living atmosphere! As you walk in the large pivot door the "wow factor" of the rain forest covered vertical mountain range across the lush valley is the first thing you see across the open living room. Kitchen, half bath, and storage closet complete the "living side" of the house. Walking across the covered breezeway terrace with seating to relax is the master suite, which consists of a bedroom and full bath plus a cozy living room for watching movies at night (this area could also serve as an office or small bedroom).
