Property Description

Tucked into rainforest, this beautiful 3 bedroom, 3 bath nature lover's escape is situated on 3.39 acres within a secure gated community just a few miles off the coastal highway above Parrita and Playa Bandera on the Pacific Coast of Costa Rica. Each bedroom has its own private bath, making this stunning residence a three master bedroom retreat with space for all to enjoy the beautiful ocean and jungle views in total privacy. One of the first things you notice as you enter the home's main living area on the upper level, are the high hardwood ceilings, giving an expansive and breezy feeling to the home so that even on the hottest days you are living cool and refreshed with or without AC units turned on. The upper level design layout is open concept, with the living space joining the galley style kitchen with granite countertops and stainless steel appliances. You also have a private studio style master bedroom with master bath on this level with a built in closet designed by one of the finest artisan wood workers from the Sarchi artist colony region of Costa Rica.
