Property Description

This property is located in the cooler parts of Atenas, Barrio Jesus. Only 8 minutes from the center of town, you are far enough to enjoy peace and tranquility but close enough for all your conveniences. The home was built and designed by a Swiss architect in 2010. You will find lanterns every 10 feet through out the fenced in cement block wall. This allows you to have great lighting for your evening entertaining. There is a main house with 3 beds / 2 baths, and a guest house or maid's quarters with a 1 bed / 1 bath. Each house has its indecent parking and laundry room. The home has a very high ceiling with strong and high quality wood. The bedrooms are large with there independent bathrooms. The back terrace was designed for large entertainment gatherings. With a perfect space for a bar and outside fridge, and plenty of room for sitting areas. Enjoy a large pool to cool off in the afternoons while listening to the local birds.
