Property Description

This luxurious, spacious, architect-designed contemporary home, has a living area of 520m². This beautiful home is located in a quiet neighborhood in La Garita and it has been thoughtfully designed to take full advantage of an amazing climate and beautiful views and landscape gardens providing not only beauty but privacy. The neighborhood has only one entrance with controlled access and 24/7 security. It is situated in a child-friendly and spacious gated community. This unique living opportunity is located minutes away from the highway Bernardo Soto and the international Airport. The location of this home is tranquil and fantastic. You will live here, practically in the bustle of the city, but with peace and a view. Upon entering this 520m² home you will find a spacious hall that connects to an office space. This home has five bedrooms all with their own functional bathrooms. A place to indulge yourself in the living room, kitchen area, and a large sun terrace where you can dine with an amazing view over the green meadows.
