Property Description

This mature tropical home is a stunning place to enjoy your life away from it all. Set in the mountains of the South Pacific of Costa Rica, this three-bedroom home overlooks an alluring ocean view that includes scenes of the Osa Peninsula, Cano Island, and the Sierpe river valley below. Located on a quiet street with minimal road traffic in the upscale community of Chontales, this home is privy to an abundance of natural sights and sounds, complemented by impeccable landscaping that includes numerous fruit trees and plentiful green space. Upon entering this one-story home, you are immediately greeted with the brightness and rich color of the locally-sourced ronrón wood that features prominently throughout the home. This Central-American hardwood is known for its resilience to the elements and fantastic color. Beyond that, it adds a rich sensuality that gives a specific elegance to the tropical aesthetic of the home.
