Property Description

This amazing property is adjacent to a preserved forest, with a stream of pure water running along the entire property. It is located in the central region, in Atenas, considered by National Geographic as the best climate in the world, 10 minutes by car from the center, 35 minutes from the airport, 50 minutes from the capital San José and 50 minutes from the beaches of the Pacific coast. The flat area consists at one end of the ground of the main house in earth and bamboo, on two floors: On the ground floor of this one: 2 large terraces, a living-dining room-kitchen a bathroom and a laundry room, with a solar system for the water which is on the roof, a bedroom with mezzanine. On the first floor: a bedroom and an office which could be another bedroom with access to the balcony. In the middle: a long workshop, iron and wood structure on one side and on the other, a parking lot. At the other end there is an organic vegetable garden with a covered structure of about 100 square meters and at the bottom of the garden there is another iron-wood and stone habitable structure composed of a closed raised bedroom, a living room-kitchen and a bathroom, open to nature.
