Property Description

This property consists of a turnkey three-home oasis, nestled in the forest yet only ten minutes from Playa Tamarindo and most top amenities you will need in your life. It could be the perfect family retreat or a high-performing rental income property, and there is room to add on. With a total of six bedrooms, a gorgeous pool and numerous outdoor gathering spaces, the property could be rented altogether to generate maximum income, or owners could live in one of the homes while renting the other two. Importantly, this 1.11-acre property (4,408 m²) has space to add on as one would please – its zoning would allow for a total of 33,000 square feet of construction. In the current Costa Rica real estate market, this type of multi-use property, especially turnkey homes close to Tamarindo, is flying off the shelves. This is the perfect opportunity to enjoy a tranquil setting in the jungle, set back in the woods among trees.
